

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have reviewed language from Units 7 and 8 and completed a writing and a listening activity.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Key language: language and vocabulary from Units 7 and 8

● MATERIALS REQUIRED

Select words from Units 7 and 8, as many as there are students in your class. Write each one on a small piece of thin cardboard.

Optional: Kid's Box AE Workbook 6 Language Portfolio page 95

Warmer

- Hand out the word cards to students. Tell them to keep them secret. Give students a few minutes to think of a definition for their word. Students do a mingling activity. They go around the class, making pairs and telling each other their definitions for their partner to guess.

SB80. ACTIVITY 1. William is talking to his friend, Sarah. What does Sarah say? Read the conversation and choose the best answer. Write a letter (A–H) for your answer. F toward

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 80. Focus them on the activity instructions and check that they know what to do. Remind them to look at the sentences before and after the blanks when they are deciding what fits there. Students complete the activity individually. They check in pairs once they have finished. Check with the class.

Key: 1F, 2D, 3G, 4H, 5C

SB80. ACTIVITY 2. Listen and draw lines. There is one example. F toward

- Focus students on the Activity 2 instructions and check that they know what to do. Remind them to listen the first time and then draw in the lines the second time they hear the CD. Play the CD. Students listen and think, processing the information they need. Play the CD again. Students draw in the lines as they listen. They check in pairs. Check with the class.

CD 4, 14

BETTY: Dad! Come and look at this.

DAD: What is it, Betty?

BETTY: It's my school photograph. Look. That's me.

DAD: Oh, yes. I can see you. You're wearing your favorite striped stockings and your pink dress.

BETTY: That's right.

DAD: Who's the girl next to you?

BETTY: Which girl do you mean?

DAD: Sorry. There are two, aren't there? The one who's smiling.

BETTY: Oh, that's Emma. She's always smiling. She's really happy.

DAD: Who's the very tall boy? Look. He's standing close to the end.

BETTY: Next to the teacher?

DAD: That's right.

BETTY: That's Harry. He's a really good friend.

DAD: OK. So who's the boy in front of the teacher?

BETTY: The boy with the short dark hair is David.

DAD: Where's your friend Katy, then?

BETTY: Oh, she's standing at the back. Can you see her, behind me?

DAD: Is she wearing a jacket with a big pocket on it?

BETTY: No. She's standing next to that girl. She's got long blond hair now.

DAD: OK. I can see her now. And who's that boy holding a book?

BETTY: Oh, that's Michael. He loves reading. He always carries a book.

DAD: That's good.

BETTY: Yes, and he's very funny, too.

Language Portfolio

- Students complete page 95 of Kid's Box AE 6 Language Portfolio (My learning diary: What I learned in class).

Ending the lesson

- Elicit any jokes students can remember from Kid's Box AE 6. They tell them to the class.

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the lesson, students will have reviewed language from Units 7 and 8 and played a game.

● TARGET LANGUAGE

Key language: language and vocabulary from Units 7 and 8

Review: language for playing games

● MATERIALS REQUIRED

One die for each group of students and game pieces, one for each student for the game

Optional: Kid's Box AE Interactive DVD 6: The classroom Quiz 4, Test Units 7–8 from Kid's Box AE Teacher's Resource Book 6 (pages 121–135), Kid's Box AE 6 Language Portfolio page 94

Warmer

- Review nationalities and countries. Say Name three countries where people speak Spanish. What do we call someone who comes from Germany? What language do they speak? Does anyone know what languages people speak in Switzerland?

SB81. ACTIVITY 3. Play the game. Ask and answer.

- Tell students to open their Student's Book to page 81. Ask a student to read the instructions aloud. Check that students understand how to play by playing a demonstration game. Students play in groups of three or four. They roll the die to move around the board. When they land on a square, the other students in the group must ask one question that they have to answer. Refer them to the examples: Where's he from? What nationality is she? Where's this from? The question relates to country or nationality. For a correct answer, they stay where they are; for an incorrect answer, they return to the square they came from and miss a turn. Students decide between them which is the correct answer. Monitor and help if necessary. Remind students of language for playing games, e.g., Whose turn is it? It's your turn.
