

6 Teacher's notes

Reinforcement worksheet 1 F toward

- Tell students they are going to play a game to test their memory. Students study the picture for two minutes. Then they cover the picture and read the sentences in Column A. From memory, they decide if the sentences are true or false (they can't look at the picture). They write T or F next to each sentence. Don't check answers with students. Let them uncover the picture and check their own answers.

Key: 2 T, 3 F, 4 F, 5 F, 6 T, 7 T, 8 F.

- Students correct all the false sentences. They write their answers in Column B. Help them with number 1 (There are some clouds in the sky). Encourage them to use words like: no / some / someone / nowhere / anyone, etc. in their answers.

Key: 1 There are some clouds in the sky. 3 There isn't anyone in the parking lot / There is no one in the parking lot. 4 There is something in the gray car. 5 There is somewhere to camp. 8 No one is eating.

- Finally, students complete the sentences about the activities that can be done on the day out.

Key: 3 There's somewhere to swim. It's the ocean. 4 There's somewhere to eat lunch. It's the restaurant. 5 There's nowhere to watch TV.

- Optional follow-up activity: Students prepare true/false questions about the picture for their partner. They exchange papers and answer them without looking at the picture.

Reinforcement worksheet 2

- Students look at the spellings and correct them.

Key: 1 chess, 2 beatbox, 3 skateboard, 4 board games, 5 free running, 6 fashion design, 7 racing bike.

- Students look at the word grid. They cross out words as instructed to leave four words that form a message. Ask students what new things they have tried.

Key: Always try something new.

- Optional follow-up activity: Students write a definition for four free time activities e.g., It's something you do in the living room. You often do it in the evening (watch TV). They form small groups. Students read aloud their definitions to the others in the group, who have to guess what the activity is. Award one point for each correct answer.

Extension worksheet 1

- Students look at the results of Tom's survey. Ask them if anything surprises them. Give them some help before they do this, e.g., ask them how many people in Tom's class have a mountain bike (19). Is that a lot, in their opinion? Finally, ask students to match the halves of the sentences about Tom's class.

Key: a 2, b 5, c 6, d 3, e 4.

- Students write sentences about fashion design and beatbox following the models in Activity 2.

Key: Some students can design clothes. Almost everyone would like to try beatbox.

- Next, ask students to think about Tom's questions and make predictions about their classmates in pairs. How many people in their class can design clothes, for example? (Everyone? No one? Some people?) How many people can do tricks on a skateboard? Encourage students to guess.

- If you intend to do the follow-up activity, ask students to hand in their predictions to you, with their name on the sheet. Keep the predictions and find out after the follow-up activity who was correct.

- Optional follow-up activity: Students carry out their own survey. First, they write the questions that Tom asked his classmates.

Key: Have you ever tried free running? Do you have a racing bike? Can you do tricks on a skateboard? Do you like playing board games? Do you know how to design clothes? Would you like to try beatbox? Would you like to try a dangerous sport? Have you planned to go anywhere this weekend?

- Now they work in groups and ask each other these questions. They should note the answers on paper, as Tom has done, so they can write sentences about them later. They then compare their results with their predictions.

Extension worksheet 2

- Make one photocopy for every three students. They need one die for the group and a token for each player (e.g., an eraser or coin). The players put their tokens on START! Player 1 rolls the die and moves that number of spaces. When he/she arrives at the space, the person to his/her left asks the question in that space. If Player 1 is correct, he/she stays there. If not, he/she goes back one place and tries to answer that question the next time it's their turn. Next it is the turn of Player 2. The first player to reach FINISH! is the winner.

- Optional follow-up activity: In groups of three, students discuss five things: something they like to listen to / do on weekends / read / watch on TV / eat. Are their interests and tastes similar?

Song worksheet

- Begin by looking at the box. On the left-hand side there are definitions and on the right-hand side there are words. Students match the definitions with the words.

Key: b friends, c clothes, d hills, e movies, f skateboard, g hobbies, h sail.

- Students put the words into the song (they should look at the context for clues). Finally, students listen to the song (Track 11) and check their answers.

Key: 2 skateboard, 3 snow, 4 clothes, 5 sail, 6 movies, 7 hills, 8 friends.

- Optional follow-up activity: In pairs, students write a hobby for each letter of the alphabet (aerobics, beatbox, chess, etc.).

Topic worksheet

- Introduce the topic by asking the class if anyone collects anything. Pre-teach the words expensive, potato chip bags, allergic, and physically handicapped. Students read the texts and find the answers.

Key: a 2, b 1, c 4, d 3.

- Students read the sentences and complete them using 1, 2, 3, or 4 words.

Key: 1 is allergic (to them), 2 use his right hand, 3 is made of, 4 different countries.

- Optional follow-up activity: Students write an email to one of the people mentioned in the worksheet, asking them some questions about their hobby.

Reinforcement worksheet 1

Extension worksheet 2

Play the game.

Instructions

- When you land on a square, the person on your left asks you the question, e.g., What do we call someone who ...? Tell me something you do in the morning.
- If your answer is correct, stay there.
- If it's wrong, move back one square and wait for your next turn to answer that question.

1 Match the definitions with the words. Complete the song.

- a Cold, white, winter weather
- b People you get along with
- c Things you wear
- d Things like mountains, but smaller
- e Things you watch on TV or at the movie theater

Topic worksheet

1 Read about these collections. Which collection ...

a ... is the oldest?

c ... was the quickest to make?

b ... is the biggest?

d ... was in a museum?

1 Angelika Unverhau is someone who collects pens. Many pens! For over nine years she has collected them because she thinks they have really interesting shapes and colors. She has more than 220,000 pens! Every time she goes on vacation to another country, she buys a pen. Now she has pens from 146 different countries. Her most expensive pen is made of gold and it's worth a lot of money, but she's not going to sell it. She doesn't do this hobby to get rich!

2 Mike Drysdale and Gale Brennan from the U.S.A. love the comic character called Garfield. Since 1994 they have made their home into a big Garfield museum! Every corner of their house has something in it about the famous cat. They have more than 3,000 things with the cat on it. There are Garfield toys, videos, radios, plates, cups, and a bed! Do they have any cats of their own? No, they don't. Gale can't have a cat, because she's allergic to them!

3 Most people throw empty potato chip bags in the garbage can, but not Bernd Sikora of Germany. He has potato chip bags from Europe, Asia, and the United States, where potato chips were first made in 1853. Why does he collect them? He thinks that this nice snack is something we don't know much about and we can learn a lot about different countries from the bags. His collection of 2,000 empty bags was in a museum recently!

4 How many email addresses do you have? Sujit Ghosh from the city of Kolkata in India has collected a total of 5,555 email addresses! His email addresses are easy to find. The first one is "Kolkataismycity1@rediffmail.com." The last one is, of course "Kolkataismycity555@rediffmail.com." He made these addresses in just 25 days! He did all the work with his left hand, because he is physically handicapped and he can't use his right hand.

2 Complete the sentences with 1, 2, 3, or 4 words.

- 1 Gale doesn't have a real cat because she ..... .
- 2 It was difficult for Sujit because he can't ..... .
- 3 Angelika's most expensive pen ..... gold.
- 4 Bernd says we can use potato chip bags to learn a lot about ..... .
